

A Farm and Salt Meadow FOR SALE.

THE former situate about one mile above the bridge at Belleville, adjoining the farm of Mr. Gerard Rutgers, containing thirty seven acres, seven of which is very thrifty Wood land. It is divided into small fields, with good durable fences; about ten acres is laid down in Timothy Meadow, and the whole of the land is of an excellent quality with an apple orchard, and a great abundance of peach and cherry trees. There is on the place an excellent dwelling house, built of stone, and finished in the best modern stile, a large barn, and other necessary buildings; the situation for beauty is not surpassed by any, having a delightful prospect of the river up and down. Also, one hundred acres of SALT MEADOW, lying on the rear of the house built at the junction of the Belleville and Newark roads, and joining on the cedar swamp road and Hackensack river; it will be sold very low altogether; the purchaser may have the benefit of the present crop, if applied for soon. Also, for sale about fifty stacks of SALT HAY, standing on the above meadow; the hay is of an excellent quality, and put up without rain. For terms apply to the subscriber,

WILLIAM HOLMES.

N. B. Attendance on the meadows will be given for three successive Saturdays, at about 12 o'clock.
