

NOTICE.

THOSE persons who cut and stacked Sale Hay upon shares, on the meadows lately belonging to Robert Kennedy, Esq. lying upon the Hackensack River, are requested to attend upon the said meadows on Wednesday the thirtieth day of December next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, in order to make a division of the same.

And those persons who cut and stacked fresh grass upon the Bank Meadows opposite the town of Newark, are desired to attend to a division of the same on the day following, in the forenoon.

It is expected no person will attempt to remove any hay from either of the said meadows, until a division be made.

WM. HALSEY,
THOS. WARD.

December 21, 1801.