

FIRE WOOD.

THE subscribers will contract with any persons to deliver them in Newark, any quantity of Oak and Hickory WOOD of the first quality, from Kennedy's Farm, by the cord.

They will also dispose of any quantity of rough cord Wood, not suitable for the New-York market, by the cord, at a moderate price, in the woods, or deliver it in Newark if requested.

They have also a large quantity of rough Wood, old fallen wood, teoreblocks, chips and brush, which they will sell in the woods, or deliver, if required, at a low price.

They will not, however, permit any person to go into their woods at any time, under any pretence whatever, unless in company with some person who has the superintendence of the same. Nor will they permit any wood of any description to be taken away unless the money be first paid for the same; nor will they undertake to deliver wood to any person, but upon the condition that the cash be paid upon the delivery.

FRESH AND SALT HAY.

The subscribers have also a quantity of Fresh Hay in stacks, upon the Bank meadows, lately belonging to Robert Kennedy, Esq. and a large quantity of excellent Salt Hay in stacks, upon the meadows lying between Punk creek and Hackensack river, and between the present causeway and Newark Bay, which they will sell by the stack low for cash.

WILLIAM HALSEY,
THOMAS WARD.
